

I do not believe this merger is in the best interest of the public. To have one media company controlling 70% of the news we get over the airways is not good or fair. We need independent, diverse, in-depth reporting free from political bias imposed by the communication companies owner.